Wheeling is to Have Two Bowling Leagues this Season.

THE STEUBENVILLE CYCLE RACES

Yesterday Attended by a Fair Sized Crowd-Sanger Takes Two Firsts and Bliss Breaks the Obio Flying Start Record for the Half Mile. Brady, Fitzsimmons and Lumley Have a Wordy War-Other Late News of Sport.

A meeting of the board of managers of the Wheeling Bowling League has been called for Thursday evening of this week, at 7:30 o'clock, at the Mc-Lure house, when plans for the reorganization of the league for the coming season will be discussed and a determination arrived at whether or not it shall consist of eight or ten or twelve clubs. It is important that every member of the board shall be present. It is given out that the champions of last season, the South Side Bowling Club, will not this year continue its member-will not this year continue its membership in the league, but that it will be one of the clubs of the new league that is to be organized on the South Side.

Of the other clubs it is probable that the Wheeling, Columbia, Calumet, W. A. W. The Bowlers and a team made up of a portion of the South Side club will be represented in the league A plan for the reorganization of the old INTELLIGENCER and Press Club teams into one club will probably go through. Several new teams are ready to apply for admission, and it is requested that all teams desiring admission send written applications with names of the players to Secretary Archer before tomorrow evening's meeting.

The South Side Bowing League is to The South Side Bowing League is to be organized next week and the playing season will commence probably about the middle of November. The following teams are in it: Buckoyes, of Beilaire; Excelsior, Phoenix, William Knokes, Harvest Home and Mozarts. The games will be played on the Mozart and Fette alleys. ANOTHER WORDY WAR

Between Brady, Fitzsimmons, Lumley et

al. at New York. New York, Oct. 1.-Captain Glori, with Bob Fitzsimmons, Arthur Lumley and Charley White met William A. Brady, James J. Corbett's manager, today at noon. Captain Glori posted a $1,000 forfeit for Fitzsimmons to fight Corbett to a finish for the world's championship. Brady posted another $1,000 and entered a counter challenge to Fitzsimmons on behalf of Steve O'Donnell, the Australian fighter traveling with Corbett.

"Will you cover Fitzsimmons's money?" Brady was asked after a long and heated argument.

"No!" he shouted.

"Will you cover O'Donnell's money?" Fitzsimmons was asked, and he shouted "no" so loud that every one in the building heard him. with Bob Fitzsimmons, Arthur Lumley Fitzeimmons was asked, and he shouted "no" so loud that every one in the bailding heard him.

"If you, Fitz, get the championship by default, will you stand ready to defend it against all comers?"

"I will," he replied, "meet any man in the world, bar Peter Jackson, and he is objectionable to me on the ground of color."

Brady wanted to know what right Fitz had to sign with the Olympic club, of New Orleans, to fight for a $25,000 purse, and the reply that he got was:

"I am an American citizen and I have a right to sign anywhere."

"What a nice man you are to go around the country saving that you will plant your glove on Corbett's face?" demanded the angry Brady.

"I never said such an ungentlemanly thing. I deny it," exclaimed Fitz.

Brady, who was getting more and more excited, shouted to Arthur Lumley: "Corbett's the greatest fighter in the world, and no man can say he is a cur."

"Yes, he is," said Lumley, cool as an

"Yos, he is," said Lumley, cool as an icicle.

"You can't prove it," yelled Brady, at the top of his shrill soprano-voice.
"Yes, I can," was the reply, and Lumley arose to his feet and moved in Brady's direction, and every one looked for a row.
"You're a cur," roared Brady.

"You're another," said Lumley, and then Charloy White stepped in between them, and Capt. Glori apologized for such an unpleasant scene.

LATONIA RACES.

Two Favorites Came Under the Wire Winners-The Other Events. CINCINNATI, Oct. 1.-The track was dusty, but fairly fast and the crowd of moderate proportions at Latonia this afternoon. The fields averaged twelve horses spices and two favorites, Sandoval and Chant were kept in a pocket almost all of the way, but both coming out in the stretch and winning by a narrow margin. Emma Mc. and Coleen were the two second choice horses to win while Manola and Sirloin were rank outsiders and came in unexpectedly.

A STRONG TEAM

Will Face the Clevelands Here Next Saturday Afternoou.

The coming of the Cleveland national league base ball club to Wheeling next Saturday afternoon is attracting considerable interest, and it is a certainty siderable interest, and it is a certainty that the leaguers will have no snap when they run up against the team that will sail under the Wheeling colors, which will be captained by "Jack" Glasscock, the famous short stop, and will be made up of the following players: Bobby Westlake, catcher; Perk Kennedy, pitcher; Sinerrard Leach, first; Parson Nicholson, second; Padden, third; Glasscock, short; George Westlake, leit; Sammy Nichols, center; "Billy" George, right field. There is a combination of talentthat will put up a good stiff battle azainst any of them. Glasscock will have charge of the team and he anticipates that his hand will be in shape so that he will be able to play on Saturday.

Pittsburgh at Martin's Ferry.

Pittsburgh at Martin's Ferry.

The closing of the base ball season at Martin's Ferry to-day and to-morrow by the Pittsburgh and home clubs, will be great events, and the lovers of the national game will turn out in force. Robert McCleary, who pitched such a great game on Saturday for the local club, will twirl to-day and will do his best as also will the other players of the Martin's Førry club, which is one of the strongest amateur organizations in the United States. The regular Pittsburgh club will play. It consists of Gumbert, Ehret, pitchers; Mack and Woaver, catchers; Beckley, first; Bierbauer, second; Weaver or Hartman, third; Cross, short-stop; Smith, left; Stenzel, centre, and Donovan, right. Catarrh starts in the nasal passages, affecting eyes, ears and throat, and is in fact, the great enemy of the mucous membrane. Neglected colds in the head almost invariably precede catarrh, causing an excessive flow of mucus, and if the mucous discharge becomes interretuped the disagreeable results of catarrh will follow, such as bad breath, severe pain across forehead and about the eyes, a roaring and buzzing sound in the ears and oftentimes a very offensive discharge. Ely's Cream Balm is the acknowledged cure for these troubles.

Do not overwork; of what use is wealth with-out health.

Keep your feet dry, but do not wear rubbers all the time.

Dress warmly but not heavily. Woolen clothing that permits the exhalations of the body to escape is best. Remember that the pores of your skin when in health, are always open and that closing them causes sickness.

Eat heartily, but not too much greasy food. It is a mistake to suppose that fat food contains the most vitality.

If you feel chilly at any time, take some pure stimulant at once and remember that nothing for this purpose is equal to pure whiskey. Bear in mind that Duffy's Pure Malt is the purest, the best and in fact the only medicinal whisker upon the market and has the highest mendations.

Do not call the doctor for every slight allment. If you have a cold, feel depressed and lack appetite and vigor, you need something to tone and build up the system: Nothing will as this so readily as the pure article we have mentioned. Do not be deceived by any druggist or grocer however carnestly he may argue with you that some other "is just as good." There is nothing on the market equal to Duffy's Pure Malt.
